

Hart House at Deer Lake Celebrates the Summer with Lobster Supper

For Immediate Release

May 15, 2008 (Vancouver, BC) – Hart House at Deer Lake invites seafood lovers to kick off the summer season at its annual Lobster Supper. The Supper will be held in the open air of Hart House's estate on Wednesday, June 25 2008.

The evening begins with an hour of wine sampling from a special list selected by Hart House's resident Sommelier. Guests may then choose to purchase a bottle or two of their favourite wines to pair with dinner. A buffet-style dinner featuring mouth-watering fresh Nova Scotia lobster will subsequently be served on the elegant grounds of Hart House's estate, which features an unparalleled view of tranquil Deer Lake. The evening entertainment is going to be live toe-tapping Maritime music. Please note that for this event our tables are arranged to seat groups of 8 or 10, so bring your friends to share in the food and festivities!

The Supper is prepared by Hart House's Executive Chef, Dennis Peckham, who is one of the hottest chefs on the local culinary scene. His resume includes time as the Chef de Partie at Napa Valley's prestigious French Laundry, as well as terms at Vancouver's legendary Lumière and West restaurants.

Booking for the Lobster Supper will begin on May 20th, and don't wait to reserve your space, as the event always sells out quickly. You'll also want to mark Hart House's other summertime events on your calendar:
