CASUAL WESTCOAST ELEGANCE

Hart House on Deer Lake Has a Culinary Cure for the Winter Blues

For Immediate Release

February 12, 2009 (Vancouver, BC) – Starting Tuesday, February 17th 2009, Hart House at Deer Lake will offer a special three-course menu that will help raise your spirits and put a spring in your step. Our table d'hôte menu is priced at inviting $35 per person every day of the week.

Hart House is known for its outstanding cuisine, served by professional staff in our elegant dining room with a view of Deer Lake. The three-course menu being introduced on February 17th offers such sumptuous fare as roasted Jerusalem artichoke soup with winter truffle and herb oil; Albacore tuna carpaccio with fennel orange salad and creamcicle dressing; and USDA striploin with celeriac potato pave, haricot vert, and red wine sauce. For dessert, satisfy your sweet tooth with Earl Grey tea crème caramel with citrus biscotti or Devil's Food cake with whipped caramel ganache and fleur de sel. As always, Hart House's sommelier will be happy to recommend wines that will pair divinely with any of the dishes on this special menu.

To sweeten the deal Hart House is offering 25% any bottle of wine from their extensive wine list when you dine on Tuesday through April 30th, 2009. So reserve your spot at our table today, and enjoy a sweet escape from the west coast winter!
